Tabula Fati, 2015. Book Condition: new. Chieti, 2015; br., pp. 112. (A lume spento. 27). Una raccolta di poesie che riunisce le emozioni di dieci anni, emerse viaggiando per il mondo in compagnia dei sentimenti. Le speranze, e certamente anche le illusioni, di una vita vissuta alla luce di una utopia per la quale vale la pena continuare a vivere e battersi, anche se la luce è fioca, se le false primavere hanno soffocato l'entusiasmo, se il cuore è stanco e provato. La testimonianza di un poeta "non incline a cedimenti stilistici", che non chiede di aderire a nessuna poetica o scuola, ma vuole semplicemente poter narrare il proprio stupore ed i propri sentimenti di fronte a chi lo vuole ascoltare, e di fronte ad un mondo che egli avverte terribilmente ben organizzato, ma i cui fini spesso umiliano i deboli e quasi mai lasciano spazio a chi pretende di sognare. La poesia é vissuta quale tempo sospeso, perduto e ritrovato, un sommesso rapimento melanconico, una carezza per sé stesso, una consolazione per le insufficienze dell'esistere, un conforto al proprio malessere per un mondo che il poeta sente molto diverso da quello per cui ha sperato e militato in politica, la narrazione infine, di una visione e di una speranza.
