Sometimes, I just let the 5 star rating speak for itself. I can add nothing more. - Wayne Walker, Home School Book Review A long-lasting story that is part of one of my favorite series. - Erik Weibel, This Kid Reviews Books Blog (Erik is 13) Andy discovers more than he bargained for when his parents reveal his mom s past and he realizes she will die when he breaks the curse unless he intervenes. Twelve-year-old Andy returns to Oomaldee to find its citizens on edge after many have been turned into vulture-people. Against this background, Andy and his company embark upon the next quest, to retrieve the horn of a unicorn. But not long into it, a seductive voice calls to Andy, tempting him to surrender the next ingredient in exchange for a promise to preserve his mom. Will he be able to stop the transformation of Oomaldee s citizens? Will he jeopardize his ability to end the curse to save Mom? Andy Smithson will take on any problem that comes his way. The scenes and dialog in this book come alive on the page. I felt Andy s emotions and victories, and I was with him for his pain and recovery.
