Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Talks on Sculpture Schoolroom decoration - the creation of a beautiful environment which will silently cooperate with the voice of the teacher in the mental, aesthetic and spiritual development of the children - is a movement of ever-increasing importance, and one to which Miss Gertrude L. Brinkhaus has given her attention since the beginning of the year one thousand nine hundred five. At the close of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, where Miss Brinkhaus served as assistant director for the Massachusetts Educational Exhibits, she found herself possessed with the idea of helping along schools and teachers toward the attainment of schoolroom decoration by presenting to them the beautiful in sculpture - the masterpieces of the world. It was one thing to wish to do and another to hit upon a plan of doing, but suddenly there came to her the thought that newspapers must give collections of sculpture and that the schools to receive the gifts should be decided upon by means of a voting contest. The publisher of the Boston Herald was first approached, and...
